safety for women...*

Domestic and family violence—is there help and support for its victims?

Presented by Kedy Kristal, chief executive of the Patricia Giles Centre

With more than 20 years experience of working in the field of domestic violence, Kedy Kristal is now CEO of the Patricia Giles Centre. She also represents refugees, and volunteers as a Justice of the Peace and as a visitor at Bandyup prison. At our November dinner speaker she will tell us more about the care and support the Centre provides for women and their children who have suffered family violence.

Another organisation providing support and assistance to those affected by murder or serious personal violence is angelhands Inc. 25 November is White Ribbon Day to remind us of the continuing prevalence of domestic violence in our society. During our November meeting we will be holding an auction to raise funds for angelhands Inc.

Please to bring your cash—this is the perfect opportunity for some Xmas shopping while helping create a better future for others.

Regardless of whether you can attend our dinner meeting, if you have a gift or service you would like to donate for auction we'd love to hear from you.
