Sparkling with self-confidence at work

Presented by Rachel Green, Founding Director, Confident Woman Australia.

Rachel Green is an award-winning communication specialist and emotional intelligence coach, author, successful professional speaker and founder of Confident-Woman Australia. She has run her own business for over 20 years and has coached senior people in many leading organisations. She has recently released three CD sets on self-confidence featuring West Australian working women.

Confident Woman Australia, is Australia's only national organisation devoted exclusively to self-confidence and self-esteem for Australian women across the life span.

Make sure you have the self-confidence to face the changes, pressures and problems of today's ever changing world. Drawing on the inspiring stories of the 14 West Australian women in her confidence recording project, Rachel will ensure you discover how to sparkle with self-confidence every day, and to maintain your confidence even when the tasks are tough and the pressure is high. Don't let a lack of confidence lower productivity or profits. Let Rachel bring out your sparkle.
