Hello

Welcome to Staying in Touch e-news. We offer marketing consultancy, graphic design and website development. When you need business stationery or promotional material to make your business stand out we can help you to promote your business better because of our skills in marketing, design, copywriting, imagery and our technical abilities.

Order now - we're all going on a ^{Spring} Summer holiday

La Paz beach, Baja California, Mexico

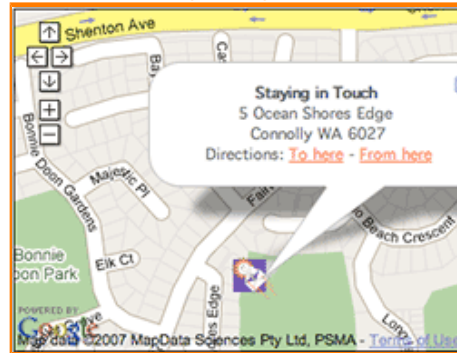

In this issue we just want to remind you that Brett and Liz will be away for 3 weeks from Friday 10th October. It will be "business as usual" and the office will still be open with Susan, Sarah, Brenten and Nicky available to help you and process any orders... BUT with two of us away we need to be realistic and let you know that turnaround time may take a little longer.

So why wait?

If you need to re-order any business cards, stationery, brochures or update your website etc, give us a call on 08 9300 4511 now or email design@stayingintouch.com.au so we can get this underway and you can beat the rush.

Millions of people search Google Maps every day

A great way of increasing traffic to your website and helping your clients and prospects to find you faster is with Google maps.

At Staying in Touch we can

- embed a Google Map into your website;
- customise the map – for example to show your location using a marker made up of your logo;
- complete the Google Maps free listing to make it easy for them to find you.

There are already a lot of Google Map fans out there who already know how to use and navigate around your map. Click here to view our customised Google map.

Need to update your website or would like to add a Google Map?

Hot Tip

You can navigate (move your view) in three dimensions in any Google Map. To pan (move the map), do one of the following:

- Click and drag the map
- Arrows - Click the appropriate arrow buttons to move the view north, south, east or west.
- Zoom - Click + to zoom in on the center of the map. Click - to zoom out.

Local leadership skills recognised

Local business woman and Connolly resident, Liz Flatters, has been recognised for her leadership skills, contribution to the community and career success to date by winning the BPW “Woman of the Year” award.

Finalists competed in a recent awards night, at the BPW (International Federation of Business & Professional Women) Western Australia state conference held in Bunbury, by presenting a speech on the theme “What influences the choices women make in 2008”.

Local business woman wins recognition – (LtoR) Arlene Quinn – BPW WA President, Liz Flatters – award winner, and Marilyn Forsythe – BPW Australia President.

“The BPW Woman of the Year award acknowledges a woman for her BPW and career achievements as well as recognising her potential,” said BPW WA President Arlene Quinn. “It is awarded to a woman who is both achieving success personally and who is committed to raising the status of women through her work with BPW.”

As the award winner, in addition to her role as a BPW WA ambassador, Liz will now represent Western Australia when she competes at the next BPW Australia national conference in 2010.
