Securing your financial future

With the gender pay gap still standing at 17% and women retiring on 50% of the super that men can expect, it is up to us to do all we can to manage the security of our financial future. Join us to learn more about property investment and financial planning from our two specialist speakers.

Tenna Barr, along with her partner Janet Britton, owns and operates JTB Property Solutions, a boutique company assisting clients with property investment. Experience in the property investment industry has shown that clients need a practical understanding of the fundamentals, in order to make an informed decisions. We believe in empowering with education.

Tenna will outline for us how property investment can be of real benefit to the women's future wealth, as well as the process JTB uses when working with clients.

Our second speaker is Emma Oliver, Director and authorised representative of Complete Financial Planning Pty Ltd. Emma has worked in finance since 2000, including five years in London as a tax consultant. She qualified as a financial planner in 2007.

Emma will take us through how to plan for superannuation and a comfortable retirement, the importance of insurance and the unique areas of financial risk for women.
